

THE GOLDEN REVELATION

EX

LIBRIS

Wm. J. H. Millan

Wm. Johnson & Son

FOREWORD

Our aim for this issue of Golden Reflector is that it may portray our life here in Deontar County High School for the year 1943-44 --- its joys and its sorrows, for such is life.

ALMA MATER

On our city's eastern border,
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

Chorus

Forward ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail,
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
D.C.E.S. ! all hail !

Charished by our sons and daughters
Memories sweet shall throng
Round our hearts, our Alma Mater
As we sing this song.

DEDICATION

TO

"As long as we are alive, as long as two of us are left, and remember him, nothing in the world can take him from us. His body can be taken, but not him."

The above quotation from William Saroyan's "The Human Comedy" expresses our feelings about each of these boys who were so much a part of the school.

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1944, supposedly sane in mind, and sound in limb and spirit, on this twenty-eighth day of April in the year 1944, do declare this to be our last will and testament. We hereby bequeath all of our laughs, loves, eccentricities, ignorance and love of study to be bestowed as follows:

John Sieb's tender voice and childish capers
to Ralph Moore;
Leon Jank's school-boy complexion to John McIlwain;
Lola Jean's "traveling pants" to Mary Lou Keeton;
Paula Simmons' ready smile to Dorcas Pope;
Althea Swift's girlish giggle as well as her eye for red-headed men to Laura Belle Yarbrog;
Jo Evelyn's ability to catch 'em and hold 'em to
Irene White;
John Ward's graceful stride to Roger Thomas;
Alice Pope's ready ways to Lola Yarbrog;
A.B.'s musical ability (especially to toast a horn)
to Bernice Ray;
Atha Thomas' English make-up papers to John D. Vico;
Billy McKenny's love for lipstick to J.D. Vico;
Lorraine Chester's bird ways to Billy Dixon;
Billy Sunday's love for argument to Brown Thompson;
Martha Ann's intellect (and her quiet (?) ways) to Augustine Grayson;
Dorothy Keeton's letter writing equipment to Mary
Ellen Welch;
Ludile Gordie's "stream of consciousness" to Dorothy
Davis;
Lucy Johnson's athletic ability to Helen Hays;
Eveline Wyatt's undernourished looking figure to Glyde Yarbrog;
Alison Sewell's days absent to Lorraine Keeton;
Largie Smith's ability as a supervisor to Lorraine Pope;
Our Home Room and Sponsor to the Sophomores.

In Memory

A father's life is empty;
A mother's heart is sad;
For God saw fit to take
The only son they had.

At school there is a vacant place
Where cheerfulness used to be
Where only now lonely ones face
The memory of Paul, you see.

A shrine of faith is erected;
A brook is streaming blue.
We want you to remember, Paul,
We still think of you.

In the Service of Our Country

J. W., keep the targets shooting,
And never fly the track;
For you, we'll be rooting
Until you come back.

Loyd, use your gun
Whatever you do.
When your job is done,
We'll be waiting for you.

The freshman class enrolled thirty-five, lost ten members, and gained one during the year.

Freshmen represented their class on the basketball team as follows: Paul Pratt, Thomas Parsons, Origono Campbell, Dorene Pope, Anna Jane Johnson, and Felly Eafforty.

Freshmen who were elected to Who's Who in Decatur County High School were: James Jones- Most Studious Boy, Dorene Pope- Loudest Girl, and William Lacy- Quietest Boy.

FRESHMAN "VIRGE"

Tribute to Our Classmate

He was happy as happy could be,
At school all the day
He never grumbled,
But was always gay.

And now he is planted in
Mother earth to rest
As sweet as the flower
That was placed on his breast.

by Mary Lou Buckingham

Freshman's Troubles

They say that Freshmen are dumb and they're green.
They say we are delinquents; but what does that mean?
Their big words we cannot yet understand,
But just keep on studying is our teachers' command.

When things are mistreated and broken into,
They point their finger at us and say, "That was you."
For all the bad things that happen we get all
of the blame;
But when honors come it's always in their name.

Let them laugh; let them blame things on us;
Teachers may get mad, and they sometimes may fuss;
But we will just go on and pay no attention to their jeers,
For we won't get the blame after three more years.

If any service man who at any time attended school here has been omitted from this roll, it is certainly through mistake and we sincerely regret it.
